NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Bits of Paragraphs that Give Condensed Notes of the Day.

Company A elects a captain this evening.
High tide tomorrow at 4:32 a. m. and 3:42 p. m.

There will not be a meeting of the Council of State this afternoon.

The fifteenth day since the last plague death will begin at 11 o'clock tonight.

Mrs. Frazier will act as principal of Kailani school the balance of this term.

A part of the trouble about the city's plumbing may have to be referred to the legislature.

The Naked Truth, the local advertising journal, has been issued for the current month.

The band will play at Emma Square this afternoon, and on Makee Island tomorrow afternoon.

The Board of Health warns all persons against meddling with any trap, snare or bait laid for rats.

All the papers in the big suit of Hogan's ministers against the steamship Miovera have been signed.

Concerts will be given by the band at Emma Square this afternoon, and on Makee Island tomorrow afternoon.

The list of officers who will serve E. Peck & Co., Ltd., for the ensuing year is published in this issue.

Notice of assessment No. 8 of ten per cent on the assessable stock of Kona Sugar Company, appears in this issue.

George Ashley is out after a long and severe illness. He expects to resume his work at Bishop and Co's next week.

Paymaster Uri, of the Health Board's finance committee, will sail by the Australia for his home in San Francisco.

Philadelphia's Saturday Evening Post of March 31 contains an able article by John T. Morgan on the Nicaragua canal.

A. Gummerson, Englishman, a man who has been a conspicuous character at the Insane Asylum for several years, is dead. He was 70 years of age.

At 2 o'clock the American flag was hoisted over the new Elite building on Hotel street. Carpenters and masons will then have a luau in the house.

A sale of delinquent Kamalo stock is advertised in this issue. The day was purposely set for the 25th, to allow a meeting of the stockholders before the sale.

Employees of the postoffice had a vacation yesterday. That is, they closed the windows and worked inside. That is about the kind of holidays they have been getting of late.

Joseph Gilman, administrator of the estate of the late John Phillips, has received an offer of $4,000 for the plumbing business and has asked the court for permission to sell.

D. G. Camarinos, administrator of the estate of the late P. G. Camarinos, has been ordered to appear in court at 9:30 next Wednesday morning and file an inventory of the estate.

The lower floor of the refrigerator at the Hawaiian Electric Company's works gave way Wednesday night, depositing the contents of the room upon the ground. No one was hurt.

James Steiner is macadamizing Adams' lane from Hotel street to Mrs.
Monsarrat's place. He says the Government has been so slow about the matter that he can wait no longer.

Emma Baker has filed a petition in the Circuit Court for letters of administration of the estate of the late Hopili Baker, valued at $6,000. There are five heirs, the petitioner and four children.

On Monday morning the Cabinet will consider the last resolution of the Council of State in regard to the Court of Claims. The resolution reached President Dole at the end of Thursday's meeting, too late to be taken up.

Irwin & Company display in their business house an immense painting of the new steamer Sonoma, one of the fleet of big steamers of the Oceanic Steamship Company to ply between San Francisco and the Colonies.

The petitions to open Beretania street from Nuuanu to the river has been sidetracked on account of the lack of funds to construct two side fences.
It is understood that the Board of Health will be asked to deal with the matter.

HER MAJESTY IN DUBLIN.

DUBLIN, April 5.—Queen Victoria went out for a drive in Phoenix Park during the afternoon as quietly as she would have done in London. She bowed in return to the frequent salutations.
Her Majesty did not enter the city streets, and returned to Vice-Regal Lodge for dinner.

HAVE HISTORIC NAMES.

West Virginia has three officials who are namesakes of early presidents of the United States. The mayor of Charlestown is George Washington, the sheriff of Braxton county is John Adams, and the sheriff of Hampshire county is James Monroe.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HENRY WATERHOUSE & CO.

NO WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Warrimoo came in this morning, with two days later news from Victoria, but there was in it nothing about what is being done in Washington.
Many people were at the wharf hoping to learn something about the Hawaiian bill, but though the vote was taken before the Warrimoo left no news about it reached Victoria.

HOUSE MOVING.

Isaac Testa was fined $10 and costs this morning for obstructing the street with a moving house on King, just beyond Liliha street.

OMINOUS PREPARATIONS.

SHANGHAI, April 5.—The ominous preparations by the Russian and Japanese war departments continue. The Russians are making strenuous efforts to fill Port Arthur with grain, even at war panic prices, and are importing quantities of wheat from North China.

Japan has called out her naval reserves for service during the approaching manoeuvres, when the entire Japanese fleet will be engaged.

ENIGMA FROM KIMBERLEY.

LONDON, April 6.—This queer telegram comes from Kimberley: "April 5.—Since the departure of the main body of troops, Lieut.-Colonel Chamier remains in command of garrison here."

The departure of any considerable body of troops has heretofore been unmentioned in the censored cables. Lord Methuen was last reported at Kimberley ten days ago, and the supposition is that he has advanced with his main force from Kimberley and gone to the relief of Mafeking.
